In memoriam

HYKAWY — In loving memory of our beloved father and grandfather, Bill, who passed away September 30, 1987.

There will always be a heartache And often a silent tear; But always precious memories Of the days we had you near. We hold you close within our hearts

And there you will remain To walk with us throughout our lives

Until we meet again. —Always remembered and sadly missed by son Eddie, daughter-in-law Beverly and grandson Michael

GRAY — In memory of my nephew Fred G. Gray. The evening stars shine o'er the grave Of one we loved but could not save.

The call was sudden; To part with one we loved so dear. Like slow passing clouds the year rolled by Leaving sweet memories that cannot die.

Fresh as the flowers kissed by dew, So, are the memories dear "One" of you. —Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by Aunt Tillie

JACOBSON — In memory of Patrick Dale Raymond, January 8, 1984 — October 2, 1984.

God came down from Heaven And He walked amongst the flowers,

He stopped to pick the sweetest And that one was ours. His golden heart stopped beating,

His body is now at rest, God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.

Dear God, forgive our silent tears Our wish that he was here, Others are taken, yes we know, But he was ours and we miss him so.

Each time we see his picture, He seems to smile and say, "Don't cry, I'm only sleeping, We'll meet again some day." If tears could build a stairway And memories build a lane, We'd walk all the way to Heaven

And bring him home again. Dear God, if there are roses in Heaven

Pick twelve with extra special care,

Place them in both his arms, And tell him that we love him And how much we care.

—Always loved and missed by Mom — Carol Lavalee

RUBASHEWSKY — In loving memory of our dear wife, mother and grandmother, Ethel, who passed away October 2, 1985.

Although her smile is gone forever, Her hand we cannot touch, We have so many memories Of the wife and mother we loved so much.

No farewells were spoken, No time to say goodbye, It broke our hearts to lose her so suddenly,

And only God knows why. Our hearts still ache with sadness,

And silent tears still flow, For what it meant to lose her No one will ever know.

Lord, put Your arms around her,

And give her a great big hug, Tell her how much we miss her, And give her all our love.

Tell her she did not go alone The day she passed away, Part of us went with her,

And that part with her will stay. —Always remembered and sadly missed by your husband John, children and grandchildren.

LINKLATER — In loving memory of my husband Tom, father and grandfather, who passed away October 1, 1988.

October comes with deep regret A man I love and shall never forget

To a beautiful life came a sudden end.

He died as he lived, everyone's friend,
He was always thoughtful, loving and kind,
What a glorious memory he left behind.
He left us so sudden, his thoughts unknown
But left us memories we are proud to own.
Treasure him God, in Your Garden of Rest,
For us in the world, he was one of the best.
