

AT YWCA WEEK OBSERVANCE

Open house was held this past week at all YWCA events in observance of National YWCA Week. Shown at the membership meeting in Kate J. Anthony House, Auburn, left to right, are Miss Joan Pratt, Helen Hughes Club member and Y-teer adviser; Miss Patricia O'Leary, Lewiston Y-Teen Club member; Mrs. William J. Crossman, from the adult membership; Miss Hazel Bancroft, and Miss Jane Pratt, both members of the Helen Hughes Club.

Rejeanne Tardif To Marry May 6

Auburn, April 29.—Miss Rejeanne Tardif, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donat Tardif, 98 Gill Street, Auburn, will be married to Mel Chasson, son of Mrs. Chasson, 29 Cedar Street, on Saturday in St. Louis, Mo. Rejeanne will be the bride, Armand Chasson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Tardif, will be the groom, and Gerald Tardif, son of Mr. and Mrs. Armand Chasson, will be the best man. The wedding will be held at 25 High Street, Auburn. Rejeanne was graduated from Little High School, Auburn, in 1944, and from the School of Beauty Culture, Lewiston. Mr. Chasson was graduated from the University of Maine in Lewiston and is employed at the Continental Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolfe Bannister of Portsmouth, N. H., were recent guests of their nephew, Bernard E. Goodwin and family of Old Town, and Mrs. Bannister's mother Mrs. Jennie Cunningham and sister, Mrs. Atwood Goodwin of Lincoln.

LEWISTON SORORITY OFFICERS

Nu Phi Mu Sorority of Lewiston and Auburn will install its officers May 9 with Mrs. Gerald Reed, Lewiston, presiding. Among those to be installed will be seated, left to right, Miss Dorothy Thompson, treasurer; Miss Willoughby Thomas, vice president; Miss Shirley Page, president. Rear standing, Miss Patricia Ford, left, recording secretary; and Miss Jane Learn, corresponding secretary. (G. J. Roy Photo)

WOMEN VOTERS' LEAGUE OFFICERS

Lewiston-Auburn Women Voters elected this past week, and among its officers are Mrs. James C. Vosburgh, Jr., seated, center, president. Others, left to right, Mrs. Robert G. Wade, first vice president; Mrs. Lawrence D. Kimball, Mrs. Franklin R. Larrabee, directors, and Mrs. Frank O. Stephens, Jr., secretary. All of them will serve one-year terms, after which all officers of the league will be elected for two years. (G. J. Roy Photo)

WEDDED IN AUBURN

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. DeCoster, the former Betty Jane Hiscok, who were married April 22 at the DeCoster home, 17 Pearl Street, Auburn. The bride, daughter of A. C. Hiscok, Limermore, was educated there and at Edward Little High School, Auburn, and Leavitt Institute, Turner. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur DeCoster, is employed by his father at the Rideout Trucking Company, Auburn. (G. J. Roy Photo)

Lewiston Social Letter CMGH Nurses' Alumnae Group To Give Semi-Formal Dance

Lewiston, April 29.—A semi-formal annual dance will be sponsored Friday by the Nurses' Alumnae Association of Central Maine General Hospital. This will be held at 8 p. m. until midnight at the DeWitt Hotel, under the general sponsorship of Miss Lorraine Scott.

The above-named will also serve as chorus with Miss Alice Miller, Mrs. Morris Margolin and Mrs. Morris Supovitz. The Lewiston Reading Circle re-elected all its officers at the annual luncheon meeting held last week end. Mrs. Harvey Jones is the club president and Mrs. Ernest E. Runnalls, secretary. When Orphic and Choral Societies of Bates College give their 19th annual public concert at 8 p. m. Friday in the college chapel, Maine residents taking part will be Harry Houston, Brewer; Miss Constance Pales, Lewiston; Miss Mary Newton, Roger Briggs, both of Auburn; Miss Joyce Jackson, Pittsfield; Miss Judith Nevins, Houlton; and Russell Woodin, Waterville; all of the Orphic Society; Miss Ruth Fehlau, Miss Lois Fehlau, Miss Carol Woodcock, all of Lewiston; Miss Jean LeMire, Old Town; Miss Virginia McKinn, South Paris; and LeRoy Dancer, Augusta, in the Choral group.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Androscoggin County Medical Society had elected new officers for the season that will begin in the Fall. They are: Mrs. Otis B. Tibbels, president; Mrs. Charles W. Steele, vice president; Mrs. Philip L. Archambault, secretary; Mrs. Vincent H. Beaker, program chairman; Mrs. Merrill F. Greene, legislative; Mrs. Bertrand A. Bellevue, membership; Mrs. Waldo A. Clapp, representative for The Bulletin; Mrs. Milan A. Chapin, Today's Health subscriptions; and Mrs. Merton N. Flanders, public relations.

At its recent annual ladies night, the Men's Club of the High Street Congregational Church elected Arthur Manning, president; L. Damon Scales, vice president; and Barnaby McAuslan, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Valencia Cody is newly elected president of Les Dames Fageteemps. Miss Therese Labbay and Miss Monique Bissonnette are the club representatives to the local union. New pledges of Kappa Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, will be given a dinner at the Winter House Tuesday, and Kappa officers will be installed at that same session. Miss Dorothy Matthews, Baltimore, Md., field executive for the sorority, was present for the reception given Thursday evening at prospective members. This reception was at the DeWitt Hotel with coffee served by Mrs. Anthony Karahalios, new president of Kappa chapter, and Mrs. William B. Lever, the retiring president.

Superintendent and Mrs. E. W. Hineks and daughter, Dorothy of Calais motored to Mars Hill Sunday. They were accompanied by their daughter, Barbara, an employe of Mars Hill bank, who has been their guest for a week.

Ferro-Carrier Wedding May 6

Lewiston, April 29.—Miss Marguerite Carrier, daughter of Mrs. Louis Carrier, 202 Blake Street, Lewiston, will be married to Frederick Ferro, 204 Blake Street, Lewiston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ferro, Flushing, Long Island, N. Y., Saturday, May 6, in SS. Peter and Paul Church.

Miss Carrier will be given in marriage by an uncle, Alfred Carrier of Lewiston. Miss Lucille Carrier will be the maid of honor. Francis Ferro, Flushing, N. Y., will be the best man, Arthur Carrier, usher, and Miss Therese Cayer will conduct the Children of Mary sodality ritual.

Following a reception in the Vigilants' Hall, the couple will go to Atlantic City and return to live at 204 Blake Street.

Miss Carrier is a graduate of Lewiston High School.

Mr. Ferro was educated at Manhattan College, New York, and came here last Fall. He is employed by the U. S. Gypsum Company at Lisbon Falls.

Miss C. Labrie To Wed Saturday

Lewiston, April 29.—Miss Corinne Labrie, niece of Miss Louise Potvin with whom she makes her home at 91 River Road, Lewiston, will be married to Gerard Dumais, Ernest Ferro, Flushing, Long Island, N. Y., Saturday, May 6, in SS. Peter and Paul Church.

Miss Labrie will be given in marriage by an uncle, Alfred Carrier of Lewiston. Miss Lucille Carrier will be the maid of honor. Francis Ferro, Flushing, N. Y., will be the best man, Arthur Carrier, usher, and Miss Therese Cayer will conduct the Children of Mary sodality ritual.

Following a reception in the Vigilants' Hall, the couple will go to Atlantic City and return to live at 45 Oak Street, Lewiston.

Miss Labrie was graduated from Lewiston High School in 1948.

Mr. Dumais was educated in Lewiston and is employed by the Wade and Dutton Company, Lewiston.

Lewiston-Auburn League Of Women Voters Close Season

Lewiston, April 29.—"The Lewiston-Auburn League of Women Voters doubled its membership this past week in sound financial condition," it was reported at the annual meeting held Monday afternoon in the Lewiston YWCA building. Officers were elected for next season, and delegates appointed to attend the State Convention at Bangor, May 29-31.

The program following the business session included the reading of the Portland Evening Express report of the Falmouth League's annual meeting, a report on the League of Women Voters' Day at Farm and Home Week presented by Mrs. Rayborn L. Zerber, and a synopsis of accomplishments of the Tulsa, Okla., LWV, by Mrs. Robert G. Wade from an article currently appearing in a national magazine.

Mrs. Samuel Knitz, 22 Beacon Street, Lewiston, will be hostess to the league at 2:30 p. m. Monday, when revision of the Maine State Constitution will be studied.

Newly elected officers are: Mrs. James C. Vosburgh, Jr., president; Mrs. Robert G. Wade, first vice president; Mrs. Frank O. Stephens, Jr., secretary; Mrs. Lawrence Kimball and Mrs. Franklin R. Larrabee, directors, those to serve for one year; Mrs. George W. Tufts, second vice president; Miss Charlotte Michaud, treasurer; Mrs. Fred C. Mabre, Mrs. Thomas A. Adams and Mrs. Frank R. Larrabee, directors, those to serve two years; Mrs. William J. Crossman, retiring president, and Mrs. Aubrey E. Snowe who will serve on the nominating committee next year.

Members planning to attend the State convention are Mrs. Vosburgh, Mrs. Wade, Mrs. Crossman, Mrs. Tufts, Mrs. Snowe, Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Larrabee and Mrs. Zerber. These last two and Mrs. Crossman are members of the State Board.

Mrs. Fletcher Means To Entertain Alumnae

Mrs. Fletcher W. Means of Stroudwater will entertain the Portland Simmons College Club at a supper meeting at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Mrs. Rupert S. Lovejoy will speak on Old Stroudwater. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. William Rounds and Miss Lois Johnstone.

Foyer Musical To Present Show

Lewiston, April 29.—Foyer Musical will present a minstrel show this Sunday evening in its clubrooms under the direction of Antonio Cormier, with Robert Renaud at the piano.

Miss Juliette Bernier will be the soloist for the program at 8:15 p. m. End men will be Leo Dionne, Phil Gelinus, Paul Farrell, Jerry Tatu and Clarence Parady, soloists. Jack Rogers, Romeo Goulet, Maurice Ducher, Paul Goulet, Ruth Couture, Anita Rivarille, Roger Laperriere, Gilbert St. Hilaire, Pat Healey, Doris Provencier, Raymond Marheux and Joyce Marquis.

Paul Bernier, Donald Morin and Jean Roy will present an instrumental trio; the Novelty Stylists, a newly-formed chorus directed by Phil Gelinus will feature Charlotte Gelinus, and soloists will be the Rhythm Sisters, Irene and Pauline Breton, Gloria and Lilliette Boisvert, Eddie Sampson, Georgette Marceux, Bert Michel, Rita Boisvert, Normand Patry, Gaston Dufresne, the Laplante sisters, and Maurice Champoux.

Beverly M. Burns Weds Rudolph Ames

Lewiston, April 29.—Miss Beverly M. Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Burns, 91 Sabattus Street, Lewiston, was married to Rudolph Ames, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ames, 132 Spring Street, Auburn, April 23, in the Lewiston Federated Church. Lawrence Ray and Mrs. Frances Ray, Auburn, attended them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ames will live at 132 Spring Street, Auburn, when they return from a wedding trip. Both were educated in this community and Mr. Ames is employed at the Fitz Brothers Company, Auburn.

LeBlond-Cloutier Wedding Is Held

Lewiston, April 29.—Miss Therese Cloutier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Cloutier, 192 Bartlett Street, Lewiston, was married to Roger L. LeBlond, son of Mr. and Mrs. John LeBlond, 24 Janelle Street, Lewiston, this Saturday morning in SS. Peter and Paul Church.

The wedding reception was at the Acme clubrooms, Lewiston, after which the bride couple left for a trip. Their future home will be at 24 Janelle Street.

Both were graduated from Lewiston High School in 1942, and Mr. LeBlond is employed by the B. F. Goodrich Company Lewiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Waters of Brunswick are announcing the birth of a son, Michael Lowell, at the Brunswick Hospital. Mrs. Waters is the former Regina Paine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Paine of Boothbay.

Featured This Week In Life Magazine Hitchcock Chairs See Them At F. O. BAILEY'S Free At South Portland

ANY Fur Coat STORED THIS PRICE INCLUDES: 100% INSURANCE PROTECTION FREE MINOR REPAIRS FURRIER EXAMINATION AND FREE ESTIMATES ALL COATS AIR BLOWN, COMBED, GLAZED FULL YEAR'S INSURANCE Even When Back in Your Possession Next Fall CLOTH COAT SPECIAL INCLUDES FUR-TRIMMED $2.95 $100 INS. MINIMUM $1.50 550 INS. STORAGE ONLY KENT CLEANERS PORTLAND 695 CONGRESS ST. 437 CONGRESS ST. 247 CONGRESS ST. 8 COTTAGE ROAD 433 CUMBERLAND AVE. 635 FOREST AVE. DIAL 5-0721 For information or Pick-Up

FUR STORAGE VAULTS ON PREMISES CALL 3-2521 for bonded messenger REVITALIZING REPAIRING RELINING by our own expert furriers CANADIAN Fur Co. 617 Congress St. Portland, Me.

MAINE GIRLS IN BATES PLAY

Miss Norma Smith, Auburn, at left, and Miss Jean LeMire, Old Town, are shown in the costumes they will wear for their roles as Belina and daughter Angelique in the English translation of Moliere's, The Imaginary Invalid. This will be presented at Bates College by the Robinson Players, May 11-12-13; and again during the June Commencement, under the direction of Miss Lavinia M. Schaeffer of the faculty. (Bates News Bureau Photo)

Mothers-Teachers Club Plans Tea

Topsham, April 29.—The Mothers-Teachers Club of the John A. Cone School will hold its final meeting of the season and election of officers at 3 p. m. Friday, in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Robert Warren will be the presiding officer. A slate of officers will be presented by the nominating committee members. Mrs. William Morgan, Mrs. Leroy Nelson, and Mrs. Cleora Tarbox.

Hostesses at tea will be faculty members. Mrs. Elinor Littlefield, principal, Mrs. James Scribner, Mrs. Ralph McIntire, Miss Hatfield Cox, Miss Viola Koulovas, Mrs. Louise Brown, Mrs. Robert Richter, Mrs. Roy Woodward, and Mrs. Cleora Tarbox.

McKEM Mothers! Kids love 'em! KWIKI OVERALLS $1.98 to $3.79 No loose ends... no mending... no buttoning... no snaps... sturdy play and school tops. McKEM POLO SHIRTS $1.50 One of our leading lines - They're 2-ply, VAT-DYED cotton knits. No worries about stretching necks. Kiddie Korner 144 High St. Oposita Eastland Hotel

Get Your New Shortie Hair-do at Frank & Ernest Hair Stylists FOR THAT SOFT FEMINE PERMANENT -That looks so natural and pretty... Let us solve your individual hair problems with the most modern up to date methods. Phone 4-7961 for Your Appointment Chapman Arcade—On The Balcony.

Serene Simplicity for Young Women in White Perfectly made to assure you supreme comfort for all day long action and smartly styled, too. In a complete range of sizes. When cleaning your shoes Use Lanol White Dressing The CLINIC SHOE $7.95 - $8.95 DAVIS & CARTLAND CO. 569 1/2 CONGRESS STREET STRAND THEATRE BLDG.