Are Wedded Fifty Years

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Smith

The golden event of marriage for Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Smith, Sr. was quietly observed at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Arno F. Haack, Kohler, on May 5. The celebrants now reside in West Allis but lived in Sheboygan for a number of years, from 1931-1941.

A family dinner was served to the immediate family of the couple, which included, besides Mrs. Haack, her husband and their daughter, Betty Ann, the son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin G. Smith, Jr. of West Allis. The anniversary dinner party was held at Al Mueller's Guest House, Plymouth. An orchid and yellow rosebud corsage was worn by Mrs. Smith and her husband had a matching boutonniere. They received many gifts, flowers and cards for the occasion.

Born in Waupun on Sept. 15, 1880, Mrs. Smith is the former Agnes Swantz. The birth of Mr. Smith occurred in Fremont, Wis., on Oct. 10, 1880. Their marriage was performed by the Rev. Mr. Henke at Fremont. The Smiths belong to First Presbyterian church in Sheboygan.

Poets Of State Having Meeting In Madison Sunday

The Wisconsin Fellowship of Poets will convene in Madison on Sunday, May 20, meetings to be held in the Memorial union. This meeting has been especially planned on Sunday to accommodate members whose daily work prevents them from sharing in the majority of state conferences.

Roll will be called at 10 o'clock in the morning with each member responding with an original poem. Mrs. Louise Leighton, state president, Baraboo, will act as moderator in a panel discussion concerning all things pertaining to poetry — techniques, imagery, originality and markets. There also will be a seminar for the criticism of poems which will be patterned after the methods used by the Poetry Society of America.

Edward L. Kamarck, director of the Wisconsin Rural Writers' association, and Miss Fidelia Van Antwerp, advisory board chairman, will report on the Northwoods Festival of Arts and Crafts at Rhinelander. Miss Inga G. Caldwell, Waupaca, will read from her new book, "Still Waters".

A noonday luncheon will be served in the Georgian grill; new members will be welcomed into the fellowship and interesting surprises will be featured on the day's program. Several members from the eastern regional section will attend the state meeting.

Racette-DeTroye Nuptials Take Place Saturday

Miss Delores Racette and Leonard DeTroye were married Saturday afternoon, during a two o'clock ceremony performed by the Rev. Alfred F. Van Beck in the rectory of St. John the Baptist church, Plymouth. Parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Racette came from Iron Mountain, Mich. Others in the front pew were Mr. and Mrs. Peter DeTroye, Plymouth, father and mother of the bridegroom.

The only attendants were Miss Janet Racette, the bride's sister, as maid of honor and Gordon Trimmerger, as groomsman. Mr. Racette gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Leonard DeTroye

Dinner was served at the home of Mrs. Harold C. Owen, sister of the bride, and the reception for relatives and friends was held at Lauer's hall. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Mullins, Louisville, Ky., and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Yaggie, Milwaukee.

Iron Mountain High school is the alma mater of the former Miss Racette and Mr. DeTroye received his diploma from Kiel High school.

Christening Service

Larry Ernest was the name given the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Jaeger, 1404A S. Twenty-third street, when he was baptized Sunday afternoon by the Rev. Wendel J. Badem in St. Peter Claver church. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jaeger of Milwaukee. Dinner was served to guests at the home of the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Handel, 1732 S. Seventh street. Mrs. Elsie Jaeger and Miss Carole Van Handel, Milwaukee, were among the persons in attendance.

Fete Bride-Elect

Mrs. Melvin Wesener and Miss Florence Wagner were co-hostesses on Tuesday evening, when they entertained at the former's home on route 1, Newton. The social was a miscellaneous show for Miss June Rettele, Cleveland, who will wed Adrian Wagner, brother of the hostesses, on May 26. They are to be in the wedding party. Card games were played and winners presented their awards to the honoree.

Miss Judy Hierseman Is Feted At Parties During Past Weeks

During the past two weeks several parties have been given for Miss Judy Hierseman, who is leaving Saturday for Missouri, where she will be employed.

Wednesday evening Miss Hierseman shared honors with another couple, Miss Beatrice Gumm and her fiancé, Roger Schlafke, who will be married on May 26. Officers and teachers of the Sunday school of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church were hosts at a dinner party in the Sunday school hall. Flowers and a white centerpiece, containing a train carrying a bridal couple and topped with a "Welcome to Missouri" sign, were part of the decorations. Place cards were clever foam blocks, containing a tiny ring, umbrella and bride's dress for Miss Gumm and a small suitcase and newspaper clipping for Miss Hierseman. The Rev. August Grollmus gave a short talk, as did Emil Herges, superintendent. He presented the future bride with a cash gift. Miss Hierseman is to receive a remembrance from the group at a later date. Both young women received a corsage. Miss Edna Sarau was in charge of the program and was assisted by Miss Ruth DePogter, who planned the decorations, and other Sunday school teachers.

Several fellow workers of Miss Hierseman at The Sheboygan Press had a dinner party last Friday evening at Riverdale Country club. The honoree received a jewelry gift from the group.

Relatives and friends attended the party given last Thursday evening by an aunt, Mrs. David Neubert, at her home, 1223 Lincoln avenue. Card games were played and winners were Mrs. Allen Hentges, Mrs. Arno Mueller and Mrs. Eldred Bentz. They presented their awards to Miss Hierseman, who also received a traveling alarm clock, blouse and handkerchiefs from the group and a skirt from the hostess. A floral centerpiece decorated the serving table.

Members of Nu Phi Mu sorority, unit 1, Zeta chapter, surprised their assistant advisor Wednesday evening when the group gathered at the home of Miss Shirley Stanisch, N. Fortieth street. A game was played. Miss Hierseman was presented with a gift of jewelry.

Sorority sisters of Miss Hierseman, members of Beta Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, feted the departing person Tuesday evening. The affair was a costume party and was held at the Bismarck penthouse. A game was played during the evening hours. The farewell gift to the honoree was a traveling iron in a leather sewing case. The party was planned by Miss Vivian Gordon and Mrs. Dorothy Huebner.

District Meeting Planned Sunday

The subdistrict meeting of Methodist Youth Fellowship will be held at Greenbush Methodist church on Sunday, May 20. The afternoon session is scheduled for 2 p. m.

Speaker at both the afternoon and the evening meetings will be the Rev. Samuel Beers, chaplain at the Wisconsin State Penitentiary at Waupun, formerly pastor of Wesley Methodist church in Sheboygan. His topics will be "Growing Up to Life" and "Belongings" the latter for the evening session.

Officers will be elected and they will be installed by the Rev. Mr. Beers.

Women of the Greenbush Methodist church will serve a supper to the young people.

Golden Wedding Observance Is Held In Town Of Rhine

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dessloch, lifelong Town Rhine residents, was observed over the week end. Relatives and friends arranged a surprise for them. The celebration was continued on Monday.

Members of the Ladies Aid of St. Peter's Evangelical and Reformed church of Town Rhine on Monday afternoon surprised the couple, the first in the society ever to have a golden event. There were songs, several by a young soloist, Lee Mauk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mauk, readings, dialogues, and an appropriate message by the Rev. Arthur F. Selmekeit, the pastor. Neighbors came on Monday evening to celebrate with the couple. Gifts, including money, flowers and fruit, were presented to the honorees.

Before her marriage, the bride was Caroline Zimmermann and she was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Zimmermann in Town Rhine on April 30, 1872. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dessloch were the parents of the other celebrant, whose birth occurred on April 30, 1870, in Town Rhine. Wedding vows were repeated by the couple on May 14, 1901 before the Rev. Carl F. Lohse. The attendants were Marie Strub, now Mrs. John Kuhn, a cousin of the bridegroom, and John Zimmermann, a brother of the bride of a half century ago. Farming in Town Rhine for 34 years was their occupation and during recent years they have lived on a smaller place in the same township.

Mr. and Mrs. Dessloch brought up their niece, Mrs. Melvin Arndt, of Kohler. Gardening and fishing are hobbies of Mr. Dessloch and knitting is his wife's favorite pastime.

Installation Of New Officers Is Held Wednesday

Mrs. Loraine Kohlhaugen, outgoing president, conducted the installation service for new officers of Alpha Beta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority. The group met Wednesday evening at Powers' Club Heidelberg restaurant.

The new president is Mrs. Elaine Hartung and others installed were Mrs. Phyllis Guenther, vice president; Miss Barbara Kullmann, recording secretary, and Mrs. Marianne Finger, corresponding secretary.

On June 16, the members and their escorts will have a dinner party at Hessel's, Francis Creek.

During the cultural portion of the meeting, Miss Jean Binder discussed "Table Manners and Table Decorations." Later the group adjourned to the W. A. Pfister Jewelry store, where Mr. Josephine Wolf had arranged table displays. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wolf.

Name Daughter

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Tody, Town Mitchell, was christened, Shirley Ann, Sunday afternoon. The Rev. Louis Schmidt performed the ceremony in St. Mary's church, Cascade. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Rolie Leslie of Appleton. The Todys have come from Sanborn and are residing at the Pat Ferguson home in Town Mitchell for the present.

Silver Wedding Observance Held By Couple Here

Twenty-five years of marriage were observed over the week end by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Augustine, 1013 N. Fifth street, who extended the hospitality of open house to a large group of relatives and friends.

Saturday began with a 9 o'clock mass at St. Clement's Catholic church, where the Rev. Lawrence Dobson of Kenosha was the celebrant. He is the brother of Mrs. Augustine.

During open-house hours in the afternoon and evening, approximately 150 persons called to extend greetings to the celebrants. There were additional guests on Sunday and Monday. The couple's son, Joseph, who attends Marquette university, and the parents received the individuals, who came to share the occasion. It was marked with remembrance of silver, other gifts and flowers and some of the money received was arranged in novel ways.

Mrs. Leo B. Wright of Royal Oak, Mich. spent several days with the family and was accompanied to Milwaukee by her three sisters, Mrs. Augustine, Miss Marie Dobson and Mrs. Jerry Miller, when she left by plane. Other guests for the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Karls and son, Jack, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Zinnin of Racine.

To Present Play Tuesday Evening

The Youth Fellowship group of Saron Evangelical and Reformed church in Town Sheboygan Falls will present a play and other features in a program at the church on Tuesday evening, May 22, at eight o'clock. The Rev. A. George Schmid is pastor of the church, which is located on County Trunk J. There will be a free will offering and refreshments will be served after the program.

Son Is Christened

On Sunday morning, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boettner, 1610 Maryland avenue, was baptized at Immanuel Lutheran church. The Rev. E. T. Schmidtko performed the 10:30 a. m. ceremony in which the child received the name, Martin Robert. Sponsors are Mrs. E. W. Marquardt and Frederick Boettner. Immediate families had dinner at the Boettner home. Among the guests was Pfc. Susan Martin, a WAF, from Chanute Field, Rantoul, Ill. Mrs. Boettner is the former Beverly Martin.
