Mothers' Day Will Be Observed By Jewish Centers

The place of the woman and mother in Jewish life will be one of the themes of discussion at the programs to be arranged in observance of Mothers' Day on Sunday, May 11, by Y. M. H. A.'s, Y. W. H. A.'s and Jewish Community Centers. Their parent organization, the Jewish Welfare Board, with headquarters at 71 West 47th street, New York City, has issued a revised bulletin on Mothers' Day. The material includes suggestive programs for mass and club celebrations to be carried out by the Centers, a list of songs in English, Yiddish and Hebrew, suggestions for a white carnation salute to mothers, and other appropriate features, as well as suitable quotations and selections in prose and verse.

Sisterhood Ahavos Zedek

Miss Miriam Shonfield visited the Religious School on Sunday morning and addressed the Confirmation Class with a very impressive speech.

Mrs. A. Greenstein of Second Avenue, held a card party at her home on Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. B. Klein, president of the Sisterhood, who is going to make her future home in McKeesport, Pa. The Sisterhood presented Mrs. Klein with a beautiful gift in appreciation of the services she has rendered the Sisterhood in the past eight years.

The next meeting will be held May 7th with Mrs. B. Lebowitz acting as hostess.

Sisterhood Adath Jeshurun

A meeting of the Sisterhood will be held on Tuesday evening, May 6th, in the Auditorium of the Synagogue. All members are requested to be present, as there are very important things to be discussed.

Mrs. A. Ripp of Avondale Place, Mrs. A. Mallinger of Hays Street and Mrs. Mallinger of Collins Avenue will be hostesses for the evening.

Those who have not settled for dues or tickets, will kindly try to do so, as we are anxious to close the books. Don't forget, Tuesday, March 6th.
