Retirees seek work/study in Israel

Its retirees work/study program in Israel filled to capacity, B'nai B'rith International announced that it will form yet another group, of 50 persons, in January.

Daniel Mann, director of the B'nai B'rith Israel Commission, sponsor of ARI-Active Retirees in Israel, said that the latest group will depart from New York on Jan. 13 and return April 14.

Interested retirees should contact the B'nai B'rith Israel Commission at 1640 Rhode Island Ave., NW, Washington, D.C. 20036 or phone (202) 857-6580.

ARI participants are retirees over 50 in good health. They live, work, and study for three months in Israel. They also have the opportunity to travel throughout the country. The program is administered in Israel by Tour Ve'aleh, an agency of the World Zionist Organization.

MOVING into the post of executive director of the World Conference of Jewish Community Centers is Donald Scher, director of the Jewish Welfare Board's Israel office in Jerusalem. Scher is the former executive director of the Jewish Community Center of Greater Phoenix.
