

Deaths

Thomas C. Brannigan

Thomas C. Brannigan, a veteran of World War II, formerly of Lowell, died unexpectedly Monday at Worcester City hospital. Born in Belfast, Ireland, a son of the late Joseph and the late Margaret (Delany) Brannigan, he came to this country at an early age and resided in Lowell for a lengthy period before moving to Worcester 20 years ago. While in this city, Mr. Brannigan resided at 5 Madison street and was an attendant of St. Peter's church. He made his home at 291 Pleasant street, Worcester, and was employed for many years with the Land and Sea Food company. Mr. Brannigan was married to Mrs. Virginia (Mundhenk) Brannigan, who died in 1962. He is survived by three sons, Thomas B. Brannigan of Lowell, Joseph Brannigan of Ayer, and Bernard Brannigan of Worcester; four sisters, Miss Mary Brannigan of Los Angeles, Calif.; Miss Catherine Brannigan and Mrs. Joseph Finnegan, both of Lawrence; and Mrs. Fred Clarendon of North Andover.

John Davidson

John L. Davidson of 26 Sidney street died this morning at St. John's hospital. He was born in Glasgow, Scotland, the son of the late William and Agnes (Lennox) Davidson, and was a Canadian Army veteran of World War I. Mr. Davidson had been a communicant of the Sacred Heart church for the past seven years. He is survived by his wife, the former Margaret F. McCarthy; two daughters, Mrs. Anne Finnegan and Miss Joan Davidson, both of Lowell; two brothers, James Davidson, and Arthur J. Davidson of the New England Telephone Co.; five sisters, Mrs. Harriet Pagan, Mrs. Marion Davidson, Mrs. Agnes Murphy, Mrs. Jean McGrath, all of Lowell and Mrs. Mary Ryan of Lorraine, Ohio. He lived in St. Patrick's parish, prior to moving to the Sacred Heart parish seven years ago, and was a member of the Holy Name society.

Harry Mann

HANOVER, N.H.—Harry L. Mann, Jr. 51, husband of Henrietta Mann of Hanover, N.H., died unexpectedly here Monday. A Lowell, Mass. native, he had resided in Tewksbury, Mass. during the early part of his life and moved to Hanover about 20 years ago. He was a member of a Masonic lodge and was a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps in World War II. In Hanover he was employed at Dartmouth college. Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Stephen; and a daughter, Cynthia; also a sister, Mrs. Rosamond McCarthy of Morristown, N.J.

MORGANTIC — Two prominent Norwegians today joined in the controversy surrounding a reported romance between 27-year-old Crown Prince Harald and Sonja Haraldsen, beautiful blonde daughter of an Oslo haberdasher.

Prof. Jens Arup Seip, who teacher history at Oslo university, declared the monarchy would not be in danger if the son of King Olav married a commoner.

He told the Christian People's party newspaper Vaart Land: "If the government should not accept a commoner in the royal family, I would be inclined to drop monarchy and save the marriage."

A prominent lawyer, Peter F. Holst, said the monarchy stabilized democracy and must be retained, even if the crown prince married a commoner.
