

BEMIDJI, MINN.

BEMIDJI, Minn.—Mrs. M. Guthrie and two children, Ralph and Vivian, returned to Bemidji Wednesday from Pennington, where they were guests of Mrs. Guthrie's daughter, Mrs. A. T. F. Gamache, several days. Mrs. Guthrie's son, Everett, who is employed near Pennington, also visited at the Gamache home during the time his mother was there. The return trip was made across Cass lake.

E. J. Aldrich, who for several years has lived in this city and who has been employed here as a blacksmith, has rented the blacksmith shop formerly owned by George Beggley and is now in charge. Mr. Aldrich intends to make a specialty of horseshoeing and general blacksmith work.

George Cochran sr., made a business trip to Schley Wednesday.

Nicholas Hein, age 74, for many years a resident in this vicinity, died at the home of Charles Boldt, near the state park, Friday. Heart disease was the cause of death.

Mrs. Edward Ebert and son, Clinton, left Thursday for Little Falls, where they will visit a few days. They will be joined by Mr. Ebert and will make the trip home by automobile.

Eva Collard entertained several friends at her home on America avenue Saturday afternoon, the occasion being her sixth birthday. Games formed the amusement of the afternoon and lunch was served. The guests were Ardath Bliler, Dorothy Lundgren, Altha Whitney, Bethel Amundson, Beatrice McGregor, Fern Considine, Harriet Taylor and Helen Bailey.

Rev. and Mrs. I. D. Alvord are expected to arrive in the city the latter part of the week from Minneapolis, where Mr. Alvord has been attending the national Baptist convention and where Mrs. Alvord has been receiving medical attention for some time.

Clifford Condon has been ill in St. Anthony's hospital for the last few days.

Miss Grace Fitzwater, who is taking a course in expert accounting at the Crookston Business college, visited with friends here the latter part of last week and returned Crookston Monday afternoon. She will return to Bemidji in about three weeks to resume her duties as principal of the Bemidji Business college.
