for three hours Friday night, I was able to clock 11 killings, plus a variety of sluggings, beatings, stabbings and slappings. That was roughly one murder every 16 minutes, just from watching one show at a time You can flip the dial and find gunfire just about anywhere .

Here's a rundown on the Friday night violence.

8:00 — "Troubleshooters." One mutilation killing; happily, the victim wasn't shown. I've heard the networks try to stem the blood flow as much as possible until the tots are in bed; after 9 o'clock -watch out!

8:30 — "Rotel De Paree." A knifing death, a slugging and a fatal shooting, after which the hotel owner remarked "Reckon I better check him out of his room an extra day'

10:30 - "Black Saddle." This range opera hit the jackpot: an old bank teller shot in the back, a gunfight with one bank robber killed, a woman slapped, a prisoner dead of a broken neck in a struggle, an old man slugged, a woman slugged, the hero beaten, the killer shot and the deputy
